By now you should all have made your reservations to be with us at the A.A. International Convention in Seattle. At this writing, hotels and guest houses throughout the area are rapidly selling out their available space, so if you haven't already made your plans, do so quickly.

We especially look forward to being able to see as many of the gay and lesbian recovering community as possible. In addition to the convention, itself, there will be two main meeting places.

From Thursday through Saturday, IAC will be coordinating a hospitality suite in the Cirrus Room on the 35th floor of the Sheraton Hotel. On Friday night, immediately following the opening ceremony at the Kingdome, IAC will also coordinate the gay dance at Union Station, three blocks away.

Volunteers are urgently needed to fill 180 spaces in the hospitality suite and dance, in stretches of two hours each. Please respond by June 1. See enclosure.

We also need contributions to fund both of these events, which are supported from the IAC treasury. Complete financial statements will be available to each donor who requests one.

Please use the enclosed form to order advance dance tickets at $7.00 ($10.00 at the door), to make a contribution, and to volunteer your time.
