Roundups, Resentments & Rumors

Proof we're not yet "perfect" .. "S/M" and "PMS" were among the diverse topics offered at a recent major Roundup. This raised valid points as such areas are clearly outside A.A.'s stated purpose. History, fortunately, shows "generic recovery programs" lose their viability with alcoholics when their focus broadens into other areas. The main concern would be the reaction of a newcomer, exposed to such a melee of alphabet soup solutions, who mistakenly thinks "it's ALL part of A.A."

We're reminded of a quote from Bill W., "Shoemaker, stick to thy last; better to do one thing supremely well than many badly" (Twelve and Twelve, Tradition Five, Par. 1).

Another Roundup Solution (or 2)

To avoid confusion about Roundups, get a copy of AAWS pamphlet A.A. Guidelines (MG4). The number of Roundups continues to grow at a dramatic rate, often put on by A.A.ers with the best of intentions, but lacking some basic roots in our Traditions. This simple pamphlet will clear up any misconceptions.

Given recent problems at two other Roundups, we'll pass on another idea: Roundup (and Group) Treasurers should have a few years sobriety, be well known within the sponsoring Group, and ideally have some business experience. All checks should require TWO signatures.

RESERVE YOUR 1993 DIRECTORY NOW!

Your IAC Board had to curtail printing a revised Directory (of Gay and Lesbian A.A. Meetings Worldwide) due to dwindling cash reserves. We're now updating Group lists and preparing a new edition. Please note the request on page 4 of this newsletter for updated Group information.

To move the printing date ahead:
we need your Pre-Orders now!
Reserve your new edition now at the old rate by pre-paying. USE THE COUPON ON PAGE 5, WRITE 1993 IN BOLD PRINT ACROSS THE COUPON, ENCLOSE PAYMENT, SAME AS FOR THE 1991-92 EDITION AND MAIL IT TODAY!

Overseas Resentments

Some A.A. Groups overseas have been deluged with a mass mailing accusing A.A. and IAC of "raising funds for the Homosexual movement." Our self-righteous indignation has peaked and we merely note this as a sad comment on human frailty and character defects — traits not exactly unknown to us! IAC simply stands by our A.A. Traditions and asks anyone who reads this or any other IAC publication to judge for themselves. IAC was founded on the principles of Unity and Service. That's never changed.

We're alcoholics. We're in recovery. We're in A.A. We're also Homosexual, Gay, Lesbian and human beings committed to Unity within A.A. at all levels.

Doing Geographics

If you travel, and use your International Directory, you've discovered some listed meetings no longer exist — or have moved. Don't get an IACresentment! Our Directory is only as accurate as the data we're given — another reason for Groups to mail their updates! You'll also discover all Groups don't always operate the same way as your "home" Group. Some Groups applaud, others keep rigidly quiet. Some use different prayers. Some are more "outgoing" while others are more conservative and quiet. Some charge for coffee, etc.

A good solution: Be flexible, relax and 'vive le difference.' Our common purpose is still the same! Who knows, by being "open" you may pick up some ideas useful at your home Group.

Treasurer's Report

Can you believe it? July is already here and IAC is gearing up for its Fall meeting in Minneapolis. My Treasurer's Report in IACtivity tries to keep you informed of where IAC's funds come from and how it is spent. Realistically, however, it is next to impossible to provide a full Treasurer's Report in the newsletter, so, if any of you would like to hear the full accounting, please join us in Minneapolis. Besides, I'm sure you'll really enjoy a wonderful Roundup being hosted by our friends in Minnesota.

Now, down to business!

G.S.O.'s Big A.A. PARTY

IAC will have an important part in the 1995 International Convention to be held in San Diego, California ... IAC will host a hospitality suite for certain and a Sober and Gay Dance!

IAC's participation at International Conventions serves many purposes just as at the 1990 convention in Seattle and prior to that in Montreal. We are estimating it will cost us about $15,000 to furnish the hospitality suite with supplies and to host the wonderful dance. The IAC Board voted at the 1991 Fall meeting to set aside 10% of all contributions for the 1995 Convention. As of June 30, 1992, our savings account has $692.59 which is a long way from what we anticipate we will need. Needless to say, we need you and your group to assist in making 1995's events happen. As you consider your contributions to the various service organizations, keep our 1995 obligation in mind. Another way of giving is through birthday donations.

Len Z. of Rockville, Connecticut sent in a birthday donation for having 14 years sobriety. John H of Sarasota, Florida marked 12 years with a donation. Harold H. of Topeka sent us his 4 year birthday contribution. Lothar Z. of Vancouver hit the big 25 year mark and sent in a birthday donation. Our own IAC Chairperson, Mike Z, of Honolulu celebrated 11 years and sent in a check.

Most birthday donations are a dollar for each year.

During the last 3 months, Individual donations have totalled $191.00.

Many Roundups contribute to IAC. Most recently, Detroit's "Together We Can Round Up" sent in $120.00. Toronto, Canada's 13th Annual Gratitude Roundup reports: "Despite a gloomy economic climate, we decided to give IAC $286.01." Our sincere thanks to our Brothers and Sisters in Ontario.

Where does it all go?

Our major expense items are:
 April Newsletter Printing $ 613.00
 April Newsletter Postage 872.43
 Secretary postage 200.63
 Keep in mind that all work done by IAC is handled by volunteers. There are NO SALARIED positions in IAC. And we receive no money from GSO.

Yours, DAVID

What it was like, What happened & What it's like now

"Martinis at Age Two"

Allyson D. of Atlanta sent a rigorously honest, detailed version of "her story." Space here prohibits us from telling it all, starting at age two sipping martinis and beer. Incest, rape, prostitution, failed marriages and psychiatric wards followed — always accompanied by alcohol. We pick up Allyson's story 25 years after that toddler sipped her first martini. [Ed.]

When I came into the program of Alcoholics Anonymous, I was 27. It was January 16, 1983 and I weighed 95 pounds. I was bleeding internally and suffering from malnutrition. I'd lost the great love of my life and was once again homeless. I hadn't really worked in 2 years. My van wasn't running and none of my friends wanted anything to do with me. I figured out my life was unmanageable. Having tried everything else, A.A. was the last house on the street. I came, I hated it, men hugged me, and I couldn't stop crying. I had not cried in a very long time. I screamed and kicked my way through my first year and I broke the rules. I slept with the only woman who would feed and house me. I rewrote the literature to fit my feminist perspective until some jerk told me that I might run off some one who would die if it was written like that. I vehemently disagreed but for the first time I cared more that someone else lived than that I was right. I began to learn to learn and I tried behaviors that I didn't like or believe in. They worked. I had finally found a group that wouldn't throw me out. And miraculously, I didn't throw up any more.

Throughout the time I have been in A.A., I've made some pretty rough mistakes. Years of violence, abuse, and self-loathing take time to heal. While I went to meetings and worked the steps, my disease took the scenic route through food, sex, power, spending, talking. I have experienced powerlessness with it all. At a year and a half sober I was homeless again, with no marketable skills and no internal resources. It was at this point that the internal hole that I had tried to fill with everything and everybody began to take shape. God-shaped. I moved from compliance with the program to reliance. However, on my three year A.A. birthday I was jailed for a felony. I had forged my license plate sticker because I still believed some of the rules were wrong and therefore I didn't have to follow them. Sober behind bars has a wonderful educational quality to it.

Ancient minds sought to discover how and why we develop into people with conscience. They questioned how we can arrive at truth and right living. Their answers are reflected, I believe, in the 12 steps of A.A. I began primitively with pain as my teacher. I slowly began to take Good Orderly Direction because I had to or I would die. Then, I listened to the Group Of Drunks in A.A. because I would hurt if I didn't. I wanted what they had. My insides changed as I did what they told me they had done. One day I realized that I was doing things because when I didn't I felt uncomfortable. And finally, I follow spiritual law and human laws because it feels good and I believe in them.

Today, I have an education and am working on more. I live in the house God gave me seven and a half years ago. I am blessed with a full time work that is fulfilling. Like the book says, I have become usefully whole. I have a four and a half year relationship with a wonderful woman whom I respect and who is my friend. We share this fellowship and our lives in a way that I believed was only possible for other people. The grass I grew, this Spring, is in my garden, the friends I have cultivated in A.A.

I have been blessed with a Higher Power in my life that I believe and trust in, not because someone told me to, but, because this power has proven over and over Its love and caring for me in every area of my life. I feel safe, at last.

Some of the external changes continue to amaze me. I find pleasure in putting on lipstick and dresses in the morning. (Although you may want to know that I'm butch where it counts) I pay my bills and vote. I own a car, credit cards, a VCR. These were not my goals. They are byproducts of taking the steps that work.

A part of the world, a part of society, the revolution I longed for in all of you has incredibly taken place within me.

The Program, the Twelve Steps, and the fellowship of A.A. has given me the opportunity to be who I dreamed I was and who my God believed I was all along.

For this, I thank you.

Allyson D.
Atlanta, Georgia

Tape Bonanza

Our goal of building an audio tape library (Speaker Meetings, Roundups, Etc.) took two giant leaps forward. At the Phoenix Roundup, Darci and Mark of Coast-To-Coast Audio Productions Co. gave us 40 tapes on the spot! They'll also send us tapes of the Phoenix Roundup.

Steve A of San Jose, CA and Hilda C. of Traverse City, MI have offered to design our Library Program. Their proposals will be presented at the September IAC Board Meeting to be held in Minneapolis. The IAC Service Position as International Tape Coordinator is still open. If interested, send us your A.A. "Service Resume." Send tape donations (particularly Roundup tapes) and Service Resumes to: Tape Library, c/o IAC, P.O. Box 90, Washington, DC 20044.

More "ATTENTIONS"

All IAC mail goes from Washington, DC to our Secretary who sorts and routes it to whatever IAC service person handles the matter involved. Your letters will get a faster response if you'll note on the OUTSIDE of the envelope the general nature of your mail (Roundups, Treasurer, Newsletter, New Group, etc.). If you want to write a specific IAC service person, just put their first name and last initial on the envelope.

We Get Letters!

Alone in Eire

Dear Iac, I am writing on behalf of my A.A. Group: Seven Sober Lesbians in Ireland*. Our group is underground as no special interest groups are permitted here and homophobia is rife. Our group conscience came up with two ideas to combat our feelings of isolation; 1) to try to get in touch with other Lesbian groups that might sponsor us (as far as we know we are the only one in Ireland) and 2) to correspond with any recovering "loner" Lesbians who might wish it. Could you help us get in touch with any of the above?"

* Names and city withheld for anonymity reasons. To correspond, write IAC and mark front of envelope "IRELAND." We will forward.
— Ed.

IACService Idea Works

Dear IAC: You're so right! It was good to read your suggestion of doing service within "mainstream" A.A. and writing for the Grapevine to increase Lesbian and Gay visibility within A.A. I'm a Lesbian and in Alanon and we have much of the same problem with Alanon literature and focus: Gay & Lesbian invisibility. It was so great to have a positive suggestion for us rather than encouraging our continued bitching and moaning only. GSO has a responsibility to us, but we have a responsibility to be involved too! Thanks, Love and Fellowship.

— Alanon Co-Chair,
Living Sober 1992

Deputy Chair's Report

A big thank you goes to Portland Soberfaire for the warm welcome they gave IAC at our first invitation to the Rose City. I think we met almost everyone who attended and now have representatives for Eastern Washington and Eugene, Oregon. More city reps are needed as links in the chain of communication between groups. If you can pass on information in both directions, and be a contact in your area, volunteer.

This year has already seen groups responding to our pleas for more accuracy in group listings. Many groups have been added and a lot of changes made to existing ones. The next directory should be the best yet, and we still need verification of much old information.

In a year, I'll be rotating out of the World Directory editor position. If someone in your group is proficient with databases and would like to become involved in IAC, let us hear from them.

On page 4 is a very important form used to put together the World Directory of Gay and Lesbian A.A. meetings. Have your group is included by finding a Trusted Servant for your group to fill out the information we need and sending it back to us just as quickly as possible.

— Reilly —
